Mediation Process

Approved by the Board of Directors on June 30, 2026

The Nebraska REALTORS® Association provides a voluntary Mediation service for members who wish to resolve business disputes amicably and efficiently. Mediation offers an alternative to arbitration, allowing both parties to work together with a neutral mediator to find a mutually agreeable solution. We have professionally trained mediators available, who are dedicated to helping members navigate disputes in a collaborative, confidential setting.

How Mediation Works

The mediation process is straightforward:

1. Request Mediation: One party initiates the process by completing the Mediation Request Form.
2. Agreement to Mediate: If the other party agrees to participate, the Association will schedule a mediation session at a mutually convenient time.
3. Mediation Session: Both parties meet with an assigned mediator who facilitates discussions to help them reach a voluntary resolution.

If both parties do not agree to mediate, the process cannot proceed. Each party pays a non-refundable $50.00 fee to the Nebraska REALTORS® Association for the mediation service.

Benefits of Mediation

- Voluntary Participation: Mediation is based on mutual consent, making it an ideal choice for those willing to work collaboratively.
- Confidential and Private: Unlike arbitration or court proceedings, mediation sessions are confidential, ensuring privacy for all parties involved.
- Time and Cost-Effective: Mediation often resolves disputes faster and more affordably than formal arbitration or litigation.
- Maintains Relationships: Because mediation fosters open communication, it can help preserve business relationships by focusing on solutions rather than conflict.

If you're interested in pursuing mediation, complete the Mediation Request Form to get started. Our mediation service provides a supportive environment for resolving disputes and reaching a fair outcome that benefits all involved.
