2026 GRI Designation Courses Schedule

Your path to success starts here!

Ethics & Legal Issues - $249

(Previously GRI 103)

March 23 - 24

15 'R' CE (3 NEW CE Added)

Online Course

Instructor: Leigh York & Amy Gewecke

Note: Three CE hours of Buyer Representation have been added to this class. Participants who are short three hours below the 60-hour requirement and have completed GRI 103 may enroll in this section only to fulfill the remaining hours.

Rookie Training - $200

(Previously GRI 101)

April 14 - 15 (nVision)

15 'R' CE

Embassy Suites, La Vista

Instructor: Josh Cadillac

Residential Construction - $249

(Previously GRI 102)

October 13 - 14 (nGage)

15 'R' CE

Peter Kiewit Lodge,

Mahoney State Park, Ashland

Instructor: Barry Stranz

Advanced Real Estate Practice - $249

(New Class!)

November 10-11

15 'R' CE

Online Course

Instructor: Amy Gewecke

Note: This new class is a compilation of the previous 104, 105 & 106 courses with updated content and fulfills the requirements for the three previous classes.

GRI Requirements

- Course Completion: To earn your GRI, you must complete all four courses (60 hours), which can be taken in ANY ORDER. Each course is two days long, and full attendance is required to receive credit.
- Deadline: You have five years from the date of your first class to complete the designation.
- Exceptions: If you have previously completed all of the 104, 105 & 106 courses, you are not required to take Advanced Real Estate Practice.

Once all four courses are completed, contact alyssa@nebraskarealtors.com to apply for the Graduate REALTOR® Institute (GRI) Designation. There is a one-time $20.00 designation fee due that is sent to NAR.

Register Today!

Visit the Nebraska Realtors Association's Event Calendar for more details and to secure your spot.

Why Pursue the GRI Designation?

- Gain advanced real estate knowledge to serve your clients better.
- Increase your professional credibility and marketability.
- Earn CE credits while working toward your designation.

Many REALTORS® find the GRI designation to be a career game-changer, leading to higher client satisfaction and increased referrals. It sets you apart in a competitive market and demonstrates your commitment to professional growth and expertise.

For questions on courses or updated GRI Requirements, please contact:

Alyssa Brodersen at (402) 323-6509 or email alyssa@nebraskarealtors.com.